

Channel Country Sustainable Grazing Forum

Forum
Jundah Hall
26 May 2010

BBQ Dinner
Wednesday night

Field Tour
27 May 2010

Australian Government

Sustainable Grazing Forum

Wednesday 26 May 2010

- 9:00 Smoko
- 9:30 Channel Country landforms and the Processes that Shape Them – Dr Jerry Maroulis Faculty of Education/
Australian Centre for Sustainable Catchments USQ
- 10:45 Sustainability in the Channel Country – David Phelps DEEDI
Raising awareness and enhancing understanding of sustainability, land condition and best practice grazing land management. Information and examples will be drawn from international and local floodplain and 'outside country' pasture systems e.g. from the USA, Argentina, Brazil, Namibia, Mongolia.
- 12:00 Sustainable Grazing – David Rankine, Bunuro Station - David will be talking about the rotational grazing he has been practising on Bunuro for the past 10 years and the costs and benefits.
- 1:00 Lunch
- 2:00 Flood Plain Management Forum - Gerry Roberts
- 3:15 Managing Feral Pigs – Darren Marshall, Feral Pig Project Coordinator QMDC
- 4:30 Tea/coffee break
- 4:45 Wild Dog Behaviour and Ecology – Tony Townsend, Professional Dog Trapper and Howler
- 7:00 BBQ dinner at the Jundah Hotel

Pastoral Properties Field Tour & Wild Dog Forum

Thursday 27 May 2010

- 7:30 Depart Jundah
- 8:15 Haughton Vale Station – Managing the Effect of Total Grazing Pressure – Ian & Julie Groves
- 10:00 Smoko at Haughton Vale
- 10:30 Glen Valley – Rehabilitation of Fragile Flood Plains – Harry & Sue George
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:00 Wild Dog Control, Trapping, Baiting & Livestock Guardian Animals – Tony Townsend
- 15:00 What can we do about wild dogs in the Channel Country?
The Wild Dog Forum will give producers an overview of the successful progress that the Paroo and Murweh Shires have had over the past few years in regards to wild dog control and plan a way forward to increase participation and wild dog control in neighbouring shires.
The Wild Dog Forum will be drawing on the experiences of John Cuskelly, the State Wild Dog Coordinator;
Peter Lucas, Q/Dog and Paroo Wild Dog Chairman; Mandy Cartwright, AgForce South West Regional Manager and Murweh Wild Dog Advisory Group Secretary; and the Barcoo Shire & Diamantina Shire Rural Lands Officer, Peter Pidgeon.
- 16:30 Return to Jundah

Register now on 07 4658 0600

For catering purposes please register. No cost to attend...

